21 unanimous.

22 THE COURT: I'm handing you the verdict sheet and I'm 23 directing you to file and record the verdict.

24 Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, your duty now is 25 completed. You've been here every day the court has been open

O7F3MENF

1 since May 13. You've been extraordinary in fulfilling your
2 obligations. As I've said on more than one occasion, you were 3 here on time, you listened to the testimony, some of you took 4 notes. You, from my standpoint, observing you, you were 5 following the testimony assiduously, and I know you've taken
6 your obligations very seriously.

7 I appreciate your having been available and willing to 8 undertake jury duty. And it turned out to be an extensive
9 period of time, longer than I had projected. I think
10 originally we were talking about six to seven weeks, and it's 11 been nine weeks.

12 I very much appreciate your service, as I know my 13 staff does, and as I know all of the attorneys here do and the 14 parties as well. Again, everyone appreciates your service to 15 the court.

16 Ladies and gentlemen, you are discharged with the 17 appreciation of the Court, my staff, the attorneys, and the 18 parties. You are excused.

19 (Jury dismissed. Time noted 1:06 p.m.)

20 THE COURT: I'm setting the sentencing date at this 21 time as October 29, 2 p.m. for Mr. Hana, 2:45 p.m. for 22 Mr. Daibes, 3:30 p.m. for Mr. Menendez.

23 Are there any motions that the parties wish to make at 24 this time or any applications?

25 MR. RICHENTHAL: Your Honor, we have no proposed

O7F3MENF

1 change in bail conditions for Mr. Menendez and for Mr. Daibes.

2 With respect to Mr. Hana, we propose that the current 3 bond be additionally secured, and the parties had a chance to 4 confer and I can list out the additional security. That part
5 is on consent.

6 The part that isn't is Mr. Hana, as I think the Court
7 is aware, is currently released on GPS monitoring with a curfew
8 and with various places and times he's available to be outside
9 of his home.

10 At this time, in light of the jury's verdict, we move
11 that he be transferred from home detention with a curfew to 12 home incarceration, that is, not permitted to leave his 13 residence except for specified purposes and with prior consent
14 from pretrial services.

15 THE COURT: So the request of the government is to 16 change from home detention to home incarceration.

17 MR. RICHENTHAL: That is no more curfew, that's 18 correct. He must remain at home except for certain 19 circumstances, permitted to go to court, permitted to meet with 20 counsel, permitted to have necessary medical visits, and 21 effectively nothing else.

22 THE COURT: He's on GPS monitoring you say.
23 Mr. Richenthal, he has GPS monitoring?

24 MR. RICHENTHAL: He does, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Lustberg.

O7F3MENF

1 MR. LUSTBERG: Thank you, your Honor. We oppose, we 2 did agree with the government with the posting of additional 3 security.

4 THE COURT: I haven't heard that. What's the 5 additional security?

6 MR. RICHENTHAL: The additional security on the 7 bond -- this part is on consent. I think there may be a
8 dispute about home incarceration.

9 The additional security would be, beyond the security
10 already, that Mr. Hana would post or provide to his attorney to 11 put in escrow approximately $237,000 worth of 1-kilogram gold
12 bars. As well as all or substantially all of his watch
13 collection, specifically 12 Rolexes, one Chronoswiss, and one
14 Concord.

15 Specifically, your Honor, and this may be an easier
16 way to do it, it is the items listed in Government
17 Exhibit 3K-2. That's the additional security. There is 18 already substantial security on the bond.

19 THE COURT: Let me hear from Mr. Lustberg.

20 MR. LUSTBERG: Thank you, your Honor. So with respect
21 to that additional security, we discussed it with the 22 government and do not oppose that aspect of the application.

23 I should note, your Honor, just to remind the Court,
24 Mr. Hana was, when this matter was first indicted, Mr. Hana was 25 in Egypt. He voluntarily, as it were, came to the United

O7F3MENF

1 States to face these charges.

2 Since that time, he's been, as the Court noted, under 3 a house arrest type situation with GPS monitoring subject to 4 various curfews. He has consistently --

5 THE COURT: What is the curfew imposed?

6 MR. LUSTBERG: The current curfew I believe is from 8
7 in the morning until 9 in the evening. It was originally 8 to 8 8 and on application this Court allowed him to stay out an 9 additional hour until 9. And that was also subject to being 10 relaxed at the discretion --

11 THE COURT: So the curfew is the reverse, that is 12 9 p.m. to 8 a.m.

13 MR. LUSTBERG: No. I'm sorry, correct.

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

15 MR. LUSTBERG: He has been in absolute 100 percent
16 perfect compliance with those conditions of release. As the 17 Court is very well aware, he's appeared every single day for 18 trial.

19 THE COURT: This is what I'm going to do. He's under 20 GPS monitoring. I take it, Mr. Lustberg, either you or 21 pretrial services have his passports and travel documents?

22 MR. LUSTBERG: Pretrial services has those, your 23 Honor.

24 THE COURT: For both Egypt and the United States? I
25 think he's a citizen of both.

O7F3MENF

1 MR. LUSTBERG: He does not actually have travel
2 documents for Egypt. And so there are none anywhere. But,
3 yes, his U.S. travel documents are in the possession of 4 pretrial services.

5 THE COURT: I'm going to impose all of the conditions
6 that have been imposed up to now. We'll keep the curfew at 7 9 p.m. to 8 a.m. I'm going to keep it at home detention with 8 the increased security to be those items in Government
9 Exhibit 3K-2 to be posted within 72 hours of today. Otherwise
10 it's home detention. I think that's appropriate.

11 Anything else?

12 MR. RICHENTHAL: Can I ask the Court to consider one
13 modification to the curfew?

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

15 MR. RICHENTHAL: Right now as I understand it, it is 16 seven days a week. It is substantially more difficult to 17 enforce a curfew on a weekend, just given personnel issues.

18 Would the Court consider having home incarceration
19 over the weekend?

20 THE COURT: I think that makes sense. I've had that 21 issue before with the monitoring personnel.

22 Mr. Lustberg, that's my inclination. In other words,
23 have him stay at home on the weekends.

24 MR. LUSTBERG: Other than the specified reasons, such 25 as, for example, if he has to -- and I would ask for one other

O7F3MENF

1 one -- he be permitted to attend any religious observations on
2 weekends, which I think is typically --

3 THE COURT: That's fair. But I want it to be clear.
4 On weekends, it's going to be home incarceration. With the 5 terms of home incarceration, there are exceptions even within 6 home incarceration. So whatever those exceptions are. I
7 certainly think they include religious observations.

8 MR. LUSTBERG: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: So again, just to be clear, home detention
10 except on weekends where it will be home incarceration. During 11 the weekday, the curfew is 9 p.m. to 8 a.m. and throughout he's 12 to be on GPS monitoring. And the increase in security is those 13 physical items set forth in Government Exhibit 3K-2.

14 Anything else?

15 MR. RICHENTHAL: No, your Honor.

16 MR. FEE: Your Honor, we're going to reserve under 17 Rules 29 and 33. We'll make post-verdict filings in writing in 18 the time period set forth in the rules.

19 THE COURT: Set forth in the rules?

20 MR. FEE: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Fine. I understand that.

22 MR. LUSTBERG: I was going to request, given the 23 length of the trial, the complication of the record, the rules
24 require filings under Rule 29 and 33 within 14 days. I was 25 going to request we be --

O7F3MENF

1 THE COURT: Is there any objection to extending it for
2 30 days, that is until August 19?

3 Any objection?

4 MR. RICHENTHAL: No, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: But I want to be clear about this. The 6 14-day limit for post-judgment motions is extended until 7 August 19.

8 Anything else?

9 MR. RICHENTHAL: Not from the government.

10 THE COURT: Thank you. I thank everybody. It was 11 very well tried. I know all of the parties, all of the 12 attorneys devoted a great deal of time and effort to this.
13 From the standpoint of the Court, it was a well-tried case all
14 around. Thank you.
